Hi Pavel,

Thanks for sending over the content. Looks good obviously.

I know we had a hard time reaching each other through the phone a couple times. Did you want to schedule a time to meet? maybe at starbucks or at your office to get some work done that you were referring to a few weeks back? (When you asked me to bring my notebook to Sunday church)

Let me know,
Thanks

Vlad, here is what I believe to be missing information for our website project. Please review and let me know if this sounds like something we can use. Context in paragraphs below represent beliefs, spiritual direction and goals of our Church and are also aligned with ones of Assemblies of God.

The Church and Its Mission:

The Church is the Body of Christ, the habitation of God through the Spirit, with divine appointments for the fulfillment of her great commission. Each believer, born of the Spirit, is an integral part of the general assembly and church of the firstborn, which are written in heaven (Ephesians 1:22,23; 2:22; Hebrews 12:23).

The one God has revealed Himself as the eternally self-existent "I AM," the Creator of heaven and earth and the Redeemer of mankind. He has further revealed Himself as embodying the principles of relationship and association as Father, Son and Holy Spirit (Deut. 6:4; Isaiah 43:10, 11; Matthew 28:19; Luke 3:22).

Our ministry:

A divinely called and scripturally ordained ministry has been provided by our Lord for the threefold purpose of leading the Church in: 1) evangelization of the world (Mark 16:15-20), 2) worship of God (John 4:23, 24), and 3) building a body of saints being perfected in the image of His Son (Ephesians 4:11-16).

A. Ministry to the Lord through Worship: It is the purpose and mission of this Church to establish and maintain place of worship of Almighty God, our Father, and the Lord Jesus Christ, his only begotten Son, through the Holy Spirit.

B. Ministry to the Lost through Evangelism: It is the purpose and mission of this Church through the work of evangelism, under the guidance of the Holy Scriptures to seek and save that which is lost, in both home and foreign fields, in obedience to the command of the Lord Jesus Christ, and in harmony with the teaching and practice of His servants, the Apostles.

C. Ministry to the Body of Christ through Fellowship: It is the purpose and mission of this Church to build a body of believers in the image of His Son by promoting fellowship with Almighty God and among believers, individuals, and groups, within our Churches, and within our larger church community.

Statement of Fundamental Truth and Believes:

The Bible is our all-sufficient rule for faith and practice. This Statement of Fundamental Truth is intended simply as a basis of fellowship among us (i.e., that we all speak the same thing, 1 Cor. 1:10; Acts 2:42). The phraseology employed in this Statement is not inspired or contended for, but the truth set forth is held to be essential to a full-gospel ministry. No claim is made that it contains all Biblical truth, only that it covers our needs to these fundamental doctrines.

The Scriptures, both the Old and New Testaments, are verbally inspired of God and are the revelation of God to man, the infallible, authoritative rule of faith and conduct (2 Tim. 3:15-17; 1 Thess. 2:13; 2 Peter 1:21).

Subject: Website

Hi Pavel,

I have heard from many people how wonderful Shasta lake was. We are very excited to go next year. Unfortunately it didn't fully work out with My wife's work as she's not as flexible as I am when it comes to work.

I guess now that you are back I figured I could contact you regarding the website. We'll need to extract the remaining content and Yuriy and I would edit it, polish it, optimize it, etc... I just wasn't too sure which approach to take because some key elements require Pastor's minimal input such as goals, vision, maybe history, etc... He obviously doesn't need to write it all in a fancy format as we'd just take notes or ask questions and then put the pieces to the puzzle together and optimize it. :-)

Maybe it will require for you and I to get together and just finally make a list of everything we need, who we need to contact, etc...

I was also wondering, what key role does Sergey Artishuk have in this? Was he assigned to overlook the finishing process of the site? From what I understood, his role was to simply provide content for video department and then he asked me to put a video onto gracetrinity.com site as the site is being developed as I did here: <http://www.gracetrinity.com/>. Today in church he kind of implied nicely for me to finish the website. he pretty much implied that I am delaying the whole process. (in a nice way though of course) He said to get a move on it. I explained to him that I will speak to you and finalize the approach of how to extract the remainder of the content and then site will be finished right after. Instead, I kind of felt foolish in return. He had this reaction toward me that it's all my fault that the site wasn't done. So I just wanted to let you know to see your thoughts on it.

I do recall you mentioning something before about not worrying about what he says or something :-) but not sure.

Thanks,
